

1908 Webster St
San Angelo, TX 76903
$54,900

This property is being offered as is, where is. There is an HVAC unit and ductwork present, but the unit is not operable. This home has a unique floor plan and offers many possibilities. It features additional storage under the home. The workshop in the backyard will be an asset with a little repair. This property is just waiting for a creative investor to turn it into a great family home. The circular drive in the front provides additional parking.
