Built in 2007

Hickory flooring and a cozy woodstove make this well-kept house, with large shop, the place you will want to call home. The large bonus room upstairs can be a theater room, or large master suite. With over 2 acres of meticulously maintained, landscaped and completely fenced yard, along with the roomy, covered back deck, this home is perfect for entertaining year-round. An abundance of RV parking is available near the shop, in addition to the large space toward the back of the property that was created for that purpose. The shop has a 12' roll up door and large loft. Beautiful views.
