This will be the "Apple of Everyone's Eye". This home boasts a big beautiful Open Floor Plan, with its opulent 2-story Entry Hall, wood floors, large Master Suite with Full Bath complete with shower and jacuzzi tub. Not to mention grand Formal Dining room and Formal Living room with sliders to the rear deck. This Farm Ranch offers a centrally located Kitchen with adjoining Family Room with fireplace as well as additional sliders to rear deck to your park-like, we mean it, back yard. Huge basement as well as over-sized 2 car garage make this a home that has everything a prideful homeowner could ask for and of course an apple tree in the front yard.
